Altrincham CE Primary School – 50th Anniversary!

During the Summer Term the school will be celebrating its 50th anniversary and marking it in a variety of ways. The school opening was celebrated with the dedication of a new building by the Lord Bishop of Stockport on Saturday 15th June 1968.

The three existing schools of St John's, St Margaret's and St George's joined together as Altrincham C.E (Aided) Primary School. There was a visit of HRH the Duchess of Kent on July 21st 1969.

As part of the celebrations for the 50th anniversary we will be organising the following events:

- Service at St Margaret's Church
- Whole school photo (Wednesday 23rd May)
- Street Party
- Special gift for all the children at our school

Limited Edition School Uniform Polo Shirts

To help commemorate this special occasion we have had a limited edition special school uniform polo shirt made. This polo shirt can be purchased by visiting the school uniform suppliers website at www.myembroiderysupplies.co.uk. It will be really lovely to see as many children and staff as possible wearing these special t-shirts on 15th June 2018. The cost of each t-shirt will be £8.50. There is only a limited number of shirts so don't delay with ordering! The children will be able to wear these polo shirts at any time to school once they are purchased even into the new academic year.

To help fund these celebrations we would like to ask for a donation of £1 per child. This amount can be sent into school or paid via ParentPay.

Kind regards

J. Inglis
